Subdivision Plans:

Resident Ken Brown of 1962 Ridge Rd questioned subdividing property from his neighbor David Fisher, at 1968 Ridge Rd., to do as an add-on to his property. The Planning Commission advised him to attend the meeting to ask the Solicitor, due to conflicting comments. After reviewing the ordinances and his proposed plan, Solicitor Sharon Myers stated he would be allowed to purchase property from Mr. Brown, provided that the plan states the piece of property will be an integral part of his property and a new deed must be made showing the land all as one parcel. He can proceed with the Subdivision process.

Business from the Floor:

Amy Evans from York County Planning Commission, talked to residents about a County Stormwater Management Authority. She informed the Supervisors that they will be updated as more information is provided.

Resident Rosalie Pakenham questioned the cost of ambulance service even if you pay for a membership.
