Subdivision Plans:

There were no plans presented.

Business from the Floor:

Resident Jerre Miller asked about the inspection of septic systems like surrounding townships are doing. Solicitor Sharon Myers explained that those townships may have updated their Act 537 plans and that may have been part of that update requirement. At this time Washington Township is not updating theirs.

Old Business:

There was no old business.

New Business:

Workers Comp from Franklinton Borough office. The estimated cost is $2,543.00. Supervisor Harlen Anderson, Jr. made a motion to approve that cost only. Supervisor Dan McGregor seconded the motion.

Supervisor Ralph McGregor would like to request a Phase I Environmental Site assessment for Kralltown Elementary School. The Supervisors are concerned about environmental risk factors at the school. They have contacted the school but no one could provide them with any information. Ralph has a proposal from Atlantic Environmental Consulting Services at a cost of $3,000.00. The Supervisors do not feel that they should be liable for this amount but feel the need for the safety of whom ever purchases the school. Solicitor Sharon Myers will draft a letter to the school addressing this matter.
